WHITE WINE

LAS AMERICAS

CHILE

2010	Casa Azul, Sauvignon Blanc Rapel, Chile	£19.50
	A light, fresh and steely Sauvignon Blanc from Chile's Central Valley. Very quaffable!
2009/10	Reserva Privada, Sauvignon Blanc Agustinos. Bio Bio, Chile	£25.50
	A typical New world Sauvignon Blanc from a winery that is growing in acclaim. This offers excellent value for money.
2009	Amaral, Sauvignon Blanc Leyda, Chile	£31.50
	Winning Decanter Magazine's Bronze award this is a fantastic wine and offers great value. A fresh and intense Sauvignon Blanc with mandarin and lime fruit flavours.	Currently not available
2009	Amayna, Sauvignon Blanc Leyda, Chile	£47.25
	Regarded by many reviewers as Chile's finest Sauvignon Blanc! The vineyards poor soil and the gentle ocean breeze combine to create tremendous aromatics and intensity reflected in this wine's floral aromas and fresh exotic fruit flavours. A balanced wine with both personality and elegance.
2008	Duette Indomita, Chardonnay Casablanca, Maipo, Chile	£31.50
	Everything about this wine is big from the style of the bottle to the flavours inside yet it still manages to be well rounded and elegant and exude classic and creamy Chardonnay flavours.
2007	Montes Alpha, Chardonnay Casablanca, Chile	£37.50
	A strong fruity wine with beautiful Chardonnay character. Tropical fruits with well-integrated oak that helps add elegance without covering the fruit. The Malolactic fermentation makes for a pleasant finish and nice buttery after taste.
2009	Terrarium, Vina Morande, Gewuztraminer Reserva, Central valley, Chile	£29.50
	A very interesting wine made by Pablo Morande, one of Chile's most decorated wine makers winning awards for quality and value - both attributes exhibited in this example. Full of jasmine and orange blossom flavours it is a great example of Gewurztraminer.

ARGENTINA

2008/9	Serie A Zucchardi, Chardonnay Viognier Mendoza, Argentina	£28.50
	The Zuccardi family have been growing grapes in Mendoza for over 50 years and all that experience is shown in the quality of this wine. The blend highlights the best aspects of both grape varieties in a balanced and fruit packed way.
2006	Catena Alta, Chardonnay Mendoza, Argentina	£62.50
	Like us Robert Parker loves this wine giving it 93 points in a tasting last year. This medium bodied wine is one of Argentina's greatest and is full of tropical baked spice flavours. Very elegant!
2009	Villa Vieja La Agricola, Chenin Torrontes Mendoza, Argentina	£20.50
	Torrontes has been adopted as the white grape of Argentina. Here its powerful aromatics are blended with the weight and steely balance of the Chenin grape.
2008/9	Bodega Colome, Torrontes Salta, Argentina	£28.50
	Wine Spectator wrote about this wine...'Bright and nicely delineated, with a mouth watering undertow to the honeysuckle, chamomile, white peach and blanched almond notes. A hint of spice enlivens the finish'.
2009	Villa Vieja La Agricola, Viognier Mendoza, Argentina	£25.50
	Made under the watchful eyes of the Zuccardi family this is a very pleasant and drinkable wine full of peach, apple and pear fruit flavours.
2009	Las Bolas, Bodega Lurton, Pinot Gris Mendoza, Argentina	£26.25
	Emanating from Bordeaux the Lurton's have a deep history in wine making and since they set up in Argentina in the 1990s have gained an enviable reputation for producing great varietal wines in the region. This is a great value and typical Pinot Gris.

2010	Rio Pajaros, Viognier Progreso, Uruguay	£31.50
	Whilst Uruguay maybe relatively new on the world wine map the history of this vineyard dates back to 1870 and comes with a real wine making tradition. A delightful and interesting wine with good balance

BRAZIL

2009	Fortaleza Do Seival, Pinot Grigio Riesling Campanha, Brazil	£34.00
	Coming from the leading and most experienced wine maker in Brazil's young industry if this wine is a foresight into their future then we will drink to that! Excellent and exciting flavours from this interesting blend.

UNITED STATES

2007	A to Z, Riesling Oregon, United States	£40.00
	A lovely wine from this award winning estate. A heady perfume of mango, kiwi, lychee, acacia and pineapple carries to the palate, which balances all the wonderfully rich fruit with vibrant acidity. Recommended.
2008	Sokol Blosser, Dundee Hills, Pinot Gris Oregon, United States	£46.50
	One of the original Oregon wine makers specializing in sustainable and ethical farming though with no loss of focus on the most important thing..the wine! This is a true delight that cannot fail to please with its charming blossom and citrus aromas.

CLASSICS

FRANCE

2008	Chablis, William Fevre Burgundy, France This wine comes from some of the best vineyards in the region, very close to the Premiers Crus areas. It is a classic Chablis but not overly oaked.	£37.00
2009	Sancerre Cuvee d'antan, Henri Bourgeois, Loire, France Made from 70 year old vines, this wine fills the mouth with layer after layer of creamy fruit, a touch of breadiness from the lees and the terroir notes of truffle and warm stone.	£40.00
2008	Riesling, Trimbach Alsace, France The classic Alsace wine by one of the master wineries from the region.	£41.00
2008	Meursault, les Corbins, Vincent dancier, Burgundy, France Meursault takes its place among the most sought-after in the world of wine. With a richness and complexity few wines can match, Chardonnay from Burgundy adds classic hints of flinty and chalky soil with nuances tones of nuts, cinnamon, honey and butter to the rich, sometimes unctuous but rarely heavy, ripe orchard fruits that the grapes are capable of providing.	£42.00
2009	Sancerre, La Vigne Blanche Henri Bourgeois Loire, France The village this winery originates from was once more famous for its goats cheese than its wine however this has all changed as Henri Bourgeois has become one of the most important names in Sancerre. This is a very high quality classic Sancerre.	£44.00
2008	Pouilly Fuisse Tradition, Domaine des Vieilles Pierres Burgundy, France A fairly intense wine with hints of hazelnuts and masses of texture and weight. Produced from low yield vines then not filtered and aged in new barrels. Made in relatively small numbers it is a real find.	£55.00
2008		£58.00

ITALY

2008	Chianti Classico, Castello Di Fonterutoli Tuscany, Italy A premium example of a traditional Chianti Classic. This often maligned region produces some gems and this is definitely one of them.	£52.50
2005	Barolo Zonchera, Ceretto Piedmont, Italy Often referred to as the 'King of Wines' or the 'Wine of Kings' this really is an exceptional Barolo that has aged well and is drinking even better. 2005 was a very good year.	£95.00

SPAIN

2005	Rioja Reserva, Cune Rioja, Spain Made by one of the biggest names in Rioja if not Spain itself. This is a very traditional and high quality wine, where many Reserva wines disappoint this one will not.	£38.50
1996	Rioja Gran Reserva, Urbina Rioja, Spain Unbelievable value for a wine of this age and quality. This is a typical example of what made the Rioja name a world class product.	£65.00

	acidity. This wine is certainly hanging together very nicely.				Chablis Grand cru Bougros, Maison Damp, Burgundy, France
2007		£49.00			This superb Grand Cru Chablis boasts a complex array of pear, grapefruit and citrus fruits finely balanced by mineral and honeyed notes. Its racy acidity keeps all elements firmly in place and makes this a superbly elegant, rewarding wine. It is a superb match to your best seafood or fish dishes.
	Gevrey Chambertin, Dujac Pere et Fils, Burgundy, France
	Fine and stylish, with an appealing texture, well-judged oak and agreeable aftertaste; this is fine, solid example of a well-made Gevrey.
2007/8		£50.00		2008	Meursault, Sous la Velle Mestres Michelot Burgundy, France	£79.00
	Brunello di Montalcino, Poggio Alle Mura, Tuscany, Italy				This winery specialises in affordable yet superior quality Meursault. The house style offers sumptuous, concentrated and fleshy wines aiming to give immense pleasure. The result is a classic taste that is not too fat to enjoy.
	Produced from 100% Sangiovese, Brunello is a medium full-bodied wine with both strong acidity and tannins that support leathery, subtly spicy tones of coffee and tobacco that add depth to the classic plum and dark cherry fruits.
2006		£59.00
	Les Alleees De Cantemerla, Haut-Medoc, Bordeaux, France
	The second wine of the picturesque Chateau Cantemerle it has grown in stature and now has a following in its own right. This has aged and is drinking really well. Traditional Haut-Medoc.
					ITALY
				2009	Verniccia Di san Gimignano, Panizzi Tuscany, Italy	£41.00
2007		£65.00			Tuscany isn't the place you would generally go looking for fine white wines but this one bucks the that philosophy. The Vernaccia grape is native to Tuscany and made here by Giovanni Panizzi it is one the finest examples you will find.
	Chorey Les Beaune, Tollot-Beaut, Burgundy, France
	A small family run winery for the last five generations that produces some very high quality and beautifully balanced wines.
2006		£75.00
	La Reserve De Leoville Barton, St Julien Bordeaux, France
	Second wine of Chateau Leoville Barton. Developed colour of ruby red with a garnet rim. Aromas of dark cherry and cedar, with blackberry, cherry, almond and a touch of spice added on the palate. This wine is at its perfect maturity and is offering delightful drinking right now - a huge favourite
					NEW ZEALAND
				2009	Stoneburn, Sauvignon Blanc Malborough, New Zealand	£32.00
					Subtle aromas of lemon, grapefruit and spices with a hint of tropical fruit. This is a supple, ripe and easy going wine with the tropical fruit and grapefruit flavours supported by a mineral backbone and a crisp, refreshing finish. A classic NZ SB.
2007		£79.00
	Gevrey-Chambertain, Domaine Roux Burgundy, France
	Domaine Roux dates back to 1885, and the current generation, brothers Sebastien and Matthieu, have propelled it into one of the leading producers in Burgundy. Fine and stylish with an appealing texture, well judged oak and agreeable aftertaste. This is very well made Gevrey, less rustic than many examples.
				2007	Te Koko, Cloudy Bay Malborough, New Zealand	£75.00
					An intriguing alternative to the traditional New Zealand Sauvignon Blanc from the world famous Cloudy Bay winery. Aged in French oak and with a malolactic fermentation this presents aromas of lemon thyme, mandarin blossom and stonefruit with ginger spice and nutty and savoury tones, underlined by exotic tropical notes.
2004		£85.00
	St Emilion Grand Cru, Le Dome Bordeaux, France
	Often referred to as a 'super cuvee' this is one of the leading names in St Emilion. The 2004 vintage was excellent!

AUSTRIA

2008 Gruner Veltiner Federspiel, Terrasen £34.00
Domaene Wachau
 This is classic Gruner with all its discreet spice aromas.

UNITED STATES

2005 Old Hill Vineyard, Ravenswood, Zindanfel £79.00
Russian River Valley
California, United States
 One off the finest examples of serious Zinfandel that you are likely to fine. This is a very big wine that deserves respect. A real star from the Sonoma Valley.

CLASSICS

ROSE WINE

LAS AMERICAS

2009 La Playa, Cabernet Sauvignon Rose £22.50
Colchagua Valley, Chile
 A fresh and lively wine very closet to the shores of the Pacific ocean hence its name. Full of soft berries and light spice.

2010 DeGras, Zinfandel Rose £26.50
Colchagua, Chile
 The classic Chilean rose, fresh, young and full of flavour.

2010 ES Vino, Finca Sopenia, Malbec Rose £25.50
Tupungato, Argentina
 This winery is based high in the Argentine Andes with its vineyards 4,000 feet above sea level. Using Argentina's favourite red wine grape this is a very drinkable wine.

CLASSICS

2009 Sancerre Rose, Domaine Raimbault £48.00
Loire, France
 Made from Pinot Noir, this light and elegant rose is created from a very light pressing immediately after harvest. The pink juice is cold fermented to capture the expressive essence of this top notch red grape. Pale salmon pink in colour, it has a light summer fruits bouquet followed by a burst of ripe raspberry with good minerality and character.

FRANCE

2007 Crozes Hermitage Rouge Les Jalets, £42.00
Paul Jaboulet Aine,
Rhone, France
 Jaboulet's talents are well reknowned for his Rhone wines and they are clearly exhibited here. This is classic Crozes Hermitage in every sense of the word. Complex, spicy yet and packed with elegant fruit.

2007 Chateauneuf du Pape, Domaine de la Roquete, £42.00
Rhone, France
 Tough and tannic, with wonderful aromas of dried herbs and leather. Recommended by the Pope himself, one glass and you will be in heaven !

2003 Château Talbot, 4th cru classé, St Julien, £46.00
Bordeaux, France
 According to Robert Parker, this vintage is showing as well as can be expected. A soft, sexy, near-term style of claret with a deep plum/ruby/purple-tinged color, a big, sweet nose of anise, crème de cassis, smoke, Provencal herbs, and some spice box, it is opulent, fleshy, not profoundly concentrated, but rich enough. Everything is nicely balanced with silky tannin and low acidity. Who would argue ?

2009 Fleurie Poncie, Domaine Du Vissoux, £47.50
Beaujolais, France
 The leading name in Beaujolais and the premiere expression of the Gamay grape. This will not disappoint.

2005 Chateau Haut-Bages Averous, Pauillac, Bordeaux, £48.00
France
 Very expressive nose, showing notes of raspberry and tar, with a floral edge. There is character and interest here. Soft, sweet, creamy toffee ice cream. Good weight. Rather a ripe, caressing style on the palate, with supple tannins and fine

2007	Nostros, Indomita, Merlot Grand Reserve Casablanca, Chile This is value for Money in the glass an elegante, full bodied and complex wine full of fruits, vanilla and toasted wood.	£24.50	RED WINE
					LAS AMERICAS
2008	Seleccion Vina Chocalan, Carmenera Chile A grape that really grows well in Chile and this is the prime example of its flavours. Soft and very lightly spicy.	£26.50	ARGENTINA
2009	Degras, Carmenera Reserva Chile An interesting, spice and black pepper nose precedes a deliciously full, soft, fruity palate, benefiting from the added depth and complexity of nine months in French oak barrels.	£32.50		2009	Eco Organic, Bodega Santa Ana, Malbec Mendoza, Argentina A relative new comer to the Argentinean wine industry this wine is leading the way in experimentation. Totally organic and unusually aged and fermented without the use of oak.	£26.50
				2009	Altos Las Hormigas, Malbec Mendoza, Argentina A light and very drinkable Malbec displaying the softer characteristics of the variety. Soft fruit flavours.	£28.50
BRAZIL				2007	Familia Bianchi, Valentin Bianchi, Malbec Mendoza, Argentina Argentina's finest grape variety here made by one of the most successful wine families. A soft and silky wine but with intense flavours.	£31.50
2005	Quinta Do Seival, Castas Portuguesas, Campanha, Brazil A relative newcomer to the International wine world Brazil however produces a large amount of wine though much of it is for domestic use. This example leads us to hoep that more of it makes its way out of the country.	£38.00		2007	Obra Prima Reserva, Malbec Familia Cassone, Mendoza, Argentina Made from grapes Brown in vineyards over 90 years old then aged for 12 months in new French oak this wine has an amazing flavour. Exceptionally deep and intense with great rich fruit and spice.	£41.00
2008	Terroir Miolo, Merlot Vale dos Vinhedos, Brazil Brazilian wine often uses Portugese or native grapes however this one is a fine example of what they can do with Merlot. All the main characteristics of the grape are there with an added amount of sunshine.	£42.00		2007/8	Colome Estate, Malbec Salta, Argentina This wine is a real experience, made by Colome who specialise in really amazing quality wines it represents a really exciting expression of Malbec. Big flavours and unfiltered this is a real treat.	£46.50
MEXICO				2007/8	Synthesis, Finca Sopenia, Malbec Reserve Tupungato, Argentina The World renowned wine consultant Michel Rolland supervises all of the winemaking at this estate and his experience can be tasted in every glass. This really is a world class quality wine.	£51.50
2007	Estapor Venir, Mezcla Tinto Guadalupe Valley, Mexico An interesting blend of Petite Syrah, Cabernet Sauvignon, Barbera and Zinfandel. Mexico is not know for its wines and quality ones are in short supply but this really is an interesting and good drinking example.	£38.00		2005	Catena Alta, Malbec Mendoza, Argentina This is a big big wine with a very distinct flavour. Possibly the ultimate expression of the Malbec variety produced from the best vineyards within the Catena portfolio.	£85.00
URUGUAY				2007	Catena, Cabernet Sauvignon Mendoza, Argentina One of the greatest names in Argentine wines this is a fantastic expression of the Cabernet	£39.50
2007	Tannat, RPF Family Reserve, Pisano Progreso, Uruguay Whilst Uruguay maybe relatively new on the world wine map the history of this vineyard dates back to 1870 and comes with a real wine making tradition. This is not a well known grape variety but is definitely worth trying, this particular wine comes from the family's private collection.	£41.00

Sauvignon grape. All the classic flavour but lifted with a real vibrancy.

2009	Finca Sophenia, Cabernet Sauvignon Res. Tupungato, Argentina Coming from the same estate as above this is a great example of the Cabernet grape that is aged for 1 year in French oak barrels.	£34.00	CHILE 2008	Los Caminos, Cabernet Sauvignon Colchagua, Chile A very approachable and easy drinking cabernet.	£22.50
2009	Finca Los Prados, Cabernet Malbec Mendoza, Argentina Made by Valentine Bianchi this is a great entry level in Argentine wines. Good rounded flavours and very quaffable.	£20.50	2008	Ninquen, Cabernet Carmenere Colchagua, Chile This wine comes from the first hill top vineyard in Chile where the yields are kept very low to maximise the intense flavour in the wine.	£34.50
2002	Cavas De Weinert, Cabernet Malbec Merlot Mendoza, Argentina A classic Bordeaux blend and made in the very traditional manner that Weinert excels in. This wine has to be tasted to be really appreciated but offers fantastic value for money.	£45.00	2007	Loma Larga, Cabernet Franc Casablanca, Chile As with their Syrah varietal this wine too has been critically acclaimed and is now in very short supply following Parkers award of 90 points in 2009	£40.00
2005	Enzo, Bianchi, Cabernet Merlot Malbec Mendoza, Argentina One look and touch of the bottle and you know that you are in for a real treat with this wine. The word BIG doesn't come into it...this is a world of an experience in a glass.	£72.50	2005	Manso De Velasco, Cabernet Sauvignon Curico, Chile Made from the estates old vines this wine shows power and elegance. Strong, rich and aging beautifully. A big wine from one of Spain and Chile's biggest names in wine.	£79.00
2009	Piropo, Merlot Mendoza, Argentina A nice medium bodied wine with very soft tannins and plum and berry fruit flavours.	£19.50	2008	Pionero, Vina Morande, Pinot Noir Central Valley, Chile A beautifully light Pinot but with very elegant flavour complemented by gentle oak aging.	£25.50
2008	Bonarda, Colonia Las Liebres Mendoza, Argentina Most people think of Malbec as the grape of Argentina however Bonarda is actually the most planted variety within the country. Here it is lovely medium bodied wine made with no oak.	£22.50	2008	Duette, Indomita, Pinot Noir Casablanca, Maipo, Chile Duette really do make excellent wines at very good prices. This comes from their premium range and has lots of soft texture and pinot flavours but a wonderful lively character to it.	£31.00
2009	Sangiovese, Villa Vieja La Agricola Mendoza, Argentina Better known as the Chianti grape this gives familiar flavours but with a bright life to them.	£23.50	2007	Amayna, Pinot Noir Leyda Valley, Chile Similar to its Sauvignon Blanc this is one of Chile's great wines. Its climate and soil is very similar to that of the finest regions in New Zealand and this encompasses all of the best elements that you would expect.	£58.00
2009	Santa Rosa, Familia Zuccardi, Tempranillo Mendoza, Argentina A fruity red wine with a ripe bouquet of currents and violets. This is well structured and dangerously drinkable.	£24.50	2007	Armador Odjfell, Syrah Chile An elegant incarnation of Syrah grape, rich and full this is more akin to a Rhone wine than the big Shiraz's of Australia. Very good drinking.	£28.50
2007	Saurus, Select Reserve, Pinot Noir Familia Schroeder, Patagonia. Argentina This is a wine family that is really on the rise winning great praise for its products. Here the grapes are harvested with great care by hand and then aged in a mix of French and American Oak. The wine is unfiltered to maintain every once of flavour.	£36.00	2007	Loma Larga, Syrah Casablanca, Chile Made only in small batches this is a wine that is in great demand, increased by Robert Parker's award of 91 points when tasted last year.	£44.50
