WELCOME TO

Floridita

Floridita Live brings the best funk, soul, latin and jazz to the Soho stage throughout the week, showcasing at least two great bands every night from 7.30pm and open until the early hours. Floridita stands on the original site of the Marquee Club on Wardour Street, where many famous names cut their teeth on the way to global music fame, including The Rolling Stones, U2, The Who and Led Zeppelin to name a few.

This January and February Floridita's favourites Osvaldo Chacon and Los Charlys Orchestra will be returning every Friday and Saturday to spice up your weekend with traditional Latin rhythms. Cabaret Floridita is also returning in full swing after the Christmas period every Wednesday evening, adding glitz, sparkle and high kicks to brighten up your mid week blues.

In addition to our regular performances Floridita will be hosting spectacular mid week shows featuring stars such as Mitch Winehouse, Joe Canga and the Craig Charles Show. Tickets are available online for all performances and range in price according to date, act and table position.

SAVOUR LEGENDARY COCKTAILS AND MOUTH-WATERING FOOD WHILST YOU SIT
BACK AND ENJOY SOME OF THE BEST
MUSIC IN LONDON.

FLORIDITA RESTAURANT

With deep reds, luxurious white leather and an abundance of crystal, Floridita's incredibly glamorous décor offers a unique but truly authentic supper club atmosphere. The dining menu is a mouth-watering modern interpretation of cosmopolitan Latin American and Cuban cuisine. The menu features classics such as lobster thermidor, which featured on the original Floridita menu in Havana. The restaurant is open for dinner Tuesday to Saturday from 5.30pm.

FLORIDITA COCKTAIL BAR

Originally founded in Havana in the early 20th century, El Floridita was a place where history was made. Today it is Cuba's most famous and internationally renowned cocktail bar, where Hemmingway once drank. This legacy is continued today at Floridita London. The cocktail menu is an experience in itself and boasts the most extensive selection of rums in Europe, leading to the creation of the monthly Rare Rum Club (for more information email info@floriditalondon.com) Savour legendary cocktails and mouth-watering food whilst you sit back and enjoy some of the best music in London.

CASA CIGAR LOUNGE

Home to one of the widest selections of Cuban cigars in the United Kingdom, Casa offers both a luxurious cocktail lounge and exclusive cigar humidor. What better way to begin or finish your night of live entertainment at Floridita than to go next door and sample these immaculately kept Havana cigars. From Cohiba to Partagas, there's a vast selection to choose from. For more information call 020 7314 4001 or email info@floriditalondon.com

DRIZA BONE SOUL FAMILY

Drizabone had their first hit record with "Real Love", a timeless soulful dance groove, which endures on dance floors to this day. The band followed that up with a remix of "I Love Your Smile" by U.S artist Shanice, reaching No 2 in the U.K chart. If it's nostalgia you're after, for a time when chilled sounds were served with a soulful kick rather than washed-out electronic layers then this is the band for you.

SUPPORTED BY NATHAN WATSON

Nathan Watson is known for his distinctly eclectic fresh soul funk sound. Having started off his musical career as a rapper Nathan progressed to being a of distinction. His songs come across in a refreshingly clear way and once you've heard his themes on life and love, you'll know he's lived every word.

SARAH JANE MORRIS | 9.30pm

Famed for her association with the 'Communards' in the mid-80s (the fabulous hit "Don't leave me this way" is still requested at every party!) Sarah Jane Morris continues to steer her unorthodox career to ever greater heights.

"A voice that can excite shivers of passion and delight ... Soaring, swooping, sensual and sophisticated, this voice is more than a style, it's a force of nature ... Torch song, soul standard or smoky blues, the message remains constant: human passion with a dazzling voice." (Neil Spencer, The Observer).
